

Job Description

Job Title: Senior Workers' Compensation Claims Representative
Classification: Exempt
Area of Service: Claims
Supervisor: TWC Claims Manager
Grade: E5

AMERIND Risk is a federally chartered corporation created by its Members, the governmental units of federally recognized Tribal Nations that administer federally funded housing programs for American Indian and Alaska Native families. AMERIND Risk has the operating authority to work with Tribal Governments, Enterprises, and Citizens for Property and Liability, Workers Compensation, Homeowners and Renters, Employee Benefits, Fleet Auto coverage, and Critical Infrastructure development.

Position Characteristics and Competencies

- Problem-solving and analytical thinking
- Agile and adaptable in decision making
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Strong and experienced negotiation skills
- Self-starter and strong independent work ethic
- Transparent and interactive in managing projects and reporting
- Effective at delegation and reporting; skillful working a multi-person chain
- Interest in discovering and developing new ideas
- Trustworthy as a company rep; forthcoming, communicative, and people-oriented

Job Summary

Incumbent handles Tribal Workers' Compensation claims. Responsible for all technical aspects of claims management for assigned files including compliance with the AMERIND Risk Benefit Endorsement, Tribal Ordinances (when applicable) and all established performance guidelines. Should also have familiarity with general claims handling software. This individual demonstrates positive and professional relationships with Members, Brokers and clients. Through and in coordination with TWC Manager, this position also consults with Executive level Officers, as necessary, for the resolution of case and claims issues and the monitoring of developments in the field, and with clients and customers, to evolve AMERIND WC programs and policies.

This job description does not represent an inclusive list of all duties encompassed in this position.

Job Responsibilities

- Interacts with customers and associates over the telephone, in person, and in written correspondence to establish and improve communication and service capabilities.
- Properly investigates and handles all types of workers' compensation files including lost time, litigation and long term exposure within predetermined claim-handling guidelines.
- Takes initial calls and provides instructions on claim filing requirements.
- Initiates return-to-work discussions with the employer and effect return-to-work for the injured worker.
- Interviews claimants, specialists, witnesses, physician or other professionals as necessary.

- Determines compensability and total value of claim; negotiate settlements and make recommendations regarding litigation.
- Establishes timely and appropriate case reserves.
- Investigates and manage subrogation and negotiate settlements.
- Interacts and consults with attorneys and other providers regarding claims to control costs and assist in making decisions and actions.
- Negotiates directly with the claimants as necessary.
- Employs automated diary system to issue indemnity benefits and provide claim management.
- Accurately calculates and pay wage loss and other benefits.
- Reviews and follows up on claims as needed, and closes files as appropriate.
- Documents all action plans and evaluations for claim resolution.
- Maintains organized electronic files.
- Addresses customer complaints and inquiries in an exemplary and professional manner.
- Achieves specific performance outcomes related to quality and quantity of work as established by management.
- Provides cost containment for individual claim and overall claim costs for account to achieve account profitability.
- Conducts in person claim reviews when scheduled or requested.
- Performs the duties noted in the position descriptions in accordance with AMERIND Risk WC Claim Handling Guidelines.
- Performs a wide variety of typing assignments which are sometimes confidential in nature; operates personal computer to enter data, draft, edit, revise, and print letters, tables, reports, and other materials.
- Acts as a resource to all other claims staff. Provides support, direction, advice and mentoring.
- Assists in the development of claims staff policy, procedure and protocol.
- Assists and develops training presentation material
- Maintains confidentiality of all information.
- Participates in cross-functional team process improvement projects.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

Supervision of Others

N/A

Minimum Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree in Insurance, Economics, Business Administration or related field and five to ten years' experience in insurance, claims handling, or risk management
- Five or more years of experience handling workers' compensation claims
- Valid Driver's License
- Must be able to successfully pass a background investigation

Additional Eligibility Requirements

- Advancement contingent on the ability to obtain Associates in General Insurance (AINS) designation within the first two years of employment.
- AINS 21 required within eight (8) months for continued employment.

Knowledge/ Skills/ Abilities

- Demonstrated working knowledge of workers' compensation administration rules/laws and/or Tribal Work Comp experience.
- Knowledge of medical and insurance terminology, and of claims processing practices.
- Ability to communicate effectively in the English language, both verbally and in writing.
- Ability to analyze situations and adopt appropriate courses of action.
- Ability to speak and present in public
- Ability to handle multiple tasks simultaneously
- Ability to work effectively under stressful conditions.
- Ability to interact and maintain good working relationships with individuals of varying social and cultural backgrounds, employees and officials.
- Ability to develop and interpret policies, procedures, and regulations.
- Ability to maintain an accurate and organized filing system of complex insurance records and reports.
- Ability to handle multiple tasks and meet deadlines.
- Ability to exercise independent judgment.
- Ability to train and present information to others.
- Ability to follow oral and written instruction.
- Ability to collect and analyze data, and prepare and present accurate reports and recommendations.
- Skill in performing statistical and mathematical computations.
- Skill in preparing, presenting, reviewing, and analyzing insurance claims, forms, and reports.
- Skill in providing excellent customer service.
- Skill in operating business computer and office machines, including in a Windows environment, specifically Word, Excel, Access, and presentation software (such as PowerPoint).
- Familiarity of technology infrastructure and user of technology tools
- Database management skills.
- Excellent telephone communication skills.

Working Conditions & Physical Demands

- Typical business office setting with moderate noise level.
- Non-office environment may be encountered for offsite presentations and support of company activities.
- Must be able to sit for work at a computer and phone for more than 6 hours per day.
- Must be able to speak clearly.
- Must be able to use hands for dexterity of motion.

- Frequently required to stand, walk and reach with hands and arms.
- Must have ability to occasionally lift 20 + lbs.
- Must be willing to travel as necessary which may require overnight stays.
- This position may be offered as a remote position to qualified candidate.

Physical Exam

Employee is required to successfully pass an annual physical exam to certify that the incumbent is capable of performing the physical demands of the job as described above.

Hiring of AMERIND employees is subject to 7(b) of the Indian Self-Determination Act (25 U.S.C 450e(b)), which requires that, to the greatest extent feasible, preference and opportunities for training and employment shall be given to Native Americans and Alaska Natives.